Promoted intensive Youth Adults program where Youth Adults received special training including soft skill development, career exploration, job readiness and certification, year-round job opportunities, and apprenticeships. Program also supported partnerships between workforce boards and youth serving organizations. Program 1) supported age-appropriate workforce readiness programming through national out-of school time (OST) organizations; 2) promoted and increased alignment between OST organizations, workforce development programs and school systems, including alignment with dropout reengagement; and 3) increased opportunities for youth adults. The goal was to bridge the gap between existing OST program activities and the need for youth exposure to career-related services that had helped them become better prepared to enter the workforce.
